

Security Benefit Adds New Indexes to Annuities After Sales Surge

Security Benefit was featured in a recent article by Life Annuity Specialist.

Security Benefit, whose fixed-indexed annuity sales more than doubled last year, has released two new indexes designed to dampen market volatility. The S&P 500 Factor Rotator Daily RC2 7% Index and the S&P Multi-Asset Risk Control 5% Index give advisors new options for clients, Doug Wolff, president of Security Benefit, said in a news release. They will be available to owners of Security Benefit's Strategic Growth Annuity and Strategic Growth Plus Annuity, the company said.

Read the complete article from LifeAnnuitySpecialist.com (login required).

SB-10008-25